

Call For Social Worker Nominations

NASW/CT 2021 AWARD for EXCELLENCE DURING COVID

This year the Connecticut Chapter of NASW will honor individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the social work profession while working during the COVID 19 pandemic. Anyone who appreciates a Social Worker is eligible to make a nomination. NASW/CT's Award Committee will recognize up to three social workers who have had a positive impact on individuals and their community while practicing under the COVID restrictions and health insecurities. This award gives the Chapter an opportunity to show appreciation to members of the profession who have gone above and beyond in remarkable ways to exemplify the commitment, spirit, advocacy, and integrity of a social worker during a pandemic that is unprecedented in our lifetime.

Criteria For Award

All nominees must:

- Be a member of NASW/CT in good standing. NASW/CT Board Members are not eligible for consideration
- Have made a recent outstanding and remarkable contribution to individuals and/or their community during COVID
- Contribute to the positive image of the social work profession
- Demonstrate a willingness to take risks for improved social work services
- Represent the professional ethics of social workers
